

Washington Ferret Rescue and Shelter

We're Moving!

The Washington Ferret Rescue & Shelter is looking to move. To where? We're not sure yet. We're certainly open to your ideas and thoughts however.

Our ultimate goal would be to move the shelter to a more retail location where we can sell ferret food, cages, supplies, litter, etc. and really be more marketable for our furry charges. If you know of anyone, or if you yourself are looking for a tax-deductible non-profit shelter tenant, please let us know! As a non-profit our money is going right back to the ferrets, so we cannot afford something terribly costly.

Our second option is to relocate our shelter to a house up in Everett, WA. If this takes place, we're going to need some help fixing up the attached garage to make it possible for the ferrets to live there. We'll need people to donate their time, tax deductible of course, to help with insulating, wiring, plumbing, and rearranging of the garage.

We'd like to extend our thanks to Liane Beckwith for doing such a wonderful job thus far. We all know how busy she is, and this move is only to make things easier for all of us to take care of the ferrets.
